

San Francisco Chronicle

Steve Pitcher

February 08, 2009

Roederer Estate
Brut Multi Vintage

For Roederer Estate Brut magnum: "Tasted against the standard 750 ml bottle ($22), it's a different wine. Livelier and more plentiful bubbles. Wine in the smaller bottle offered forward aromas of hazelnut cream, apricot and citrus, while this has shy aromas of lemon blossom and toasted brioche, enhanced by green apple and quince. In the mouth, very full and a bit frothy with more citrus flavors showing."