

New York Times

Howard G. Goldberg

February 06, 2005

Roederer Estate
Brut Multi Vintage

Recommended Wine Und

"Its fine bubbles, toasty flavor and complexity have made it a leading sparkling wine since 1988. A nonvintage blend of chardonnay and pinot noir grapes grown in the Anderson Valley in cool Mendocino County, Calif., it resembles expensive champagne. Its inspiration comes from the French parent company Louis Roederer, which produces Cristal."