

Wine & Spirits

Joshua Greene

June 2007

Roederer Estate
L'Ermitage 2000

92 Points

"An elegant vintage of L'Ermitage, it has taken some time for this 2000 to evolve. But it was worth the wait: Its austere flavors of peach and nectarine meld with incipient minerality to create depth and complexity without reliance on superripe fruit. Long lees aging has given it a creamy softness to balance that complexity. Cellar this for another year or two; it will only get better."