

Wine Enthusiast

S.H.

December 31, 2002

Roederer Estate
Brut Multi Vintage

90 Points

"You'd almost think you were drinking fine Champagne when you sip this intricate bubbly, which, after all, is owned by a French Champagne house. It's dry and yeasty, with subtle citrus flavors and an aftertaste of almond skin. Feels fine and elegant on the palate."