

San Francisco Chronicle

Lynne Char Bennett

December 05, 2008

Roederer Estate
Brut Multi Vintage

2.5 Stars (Good-Exce

"This Mendocino offshoot of the Champagne house delivers a remarkable wine for the money, outpacing many Champagnes. Widely available, this latest bottling is fresh and leesy, with green apple and crushed rock aromas. Buoyant acidity and squeezed orange flavors mix with wild berry. The bubbles are refined and the body is ample enough to avoid sharpness while maintaining a precise edge."